

Copy of letter from A. W. Weston Weymouth. Sept 15. 1851

Eliza Wighen.

Dear Friend,

A day or two since I received the Resolution of the Edinburgh Ladies Emancipation Society & your letter at company wth.

The Boston Bazaar Committee are so scattered at the present time, many of them not residing in Boston, others at this season of the year residing at the sea side or travelling there ~~it will~~ probably be some time ~~to~~<sup>next</sup> elapse before it will be in my power to bring you communication before them.

This is the ~~the~~ up consequence, because I hardly suppose the Committee they would feel inclined to take any specific action thereupon by one a counter or knowledgment of the <sup>an expression of the</sup> reception of the resolution, & deep regret, that our Edinburgh friends should have been concientious impelled to adopt their present course of duty. Our Committee is composed of ladies of very diverse religious sentiment, <sup>but</sup> agreeing in opinion with the Constitution of the A. A. S.

Society, & labouring according to their respective means & opportunities for the pecuniary receipts of the Bazaar the receipts of which are mainly devoted to the support of the Native A. S. Standard, edited by Mr Gay assisted by Messrs Druitt & Dowles. Within the Bazaar we do not see how the Standard could be more tried. This paper is devoted to the support of Anti Slavery alone opposed & expresses no opinion <sup>ante</sup> on points of Theology or the other reform at any given time of the day. Of course the opinion of the editors on extreme subjects must as an incidental consequence, or consequence appear but no cause of the Standard for the introduction of opinions either heretical or irrelevant has ever been made to my knowledge either at home or abroad.

Our receipts at the last Bazaar were three thousand, three hundred & odd dollars. ~~$2700 was paid to the Am Soc.~~ ~~for the support of the Standard.~~ Deducting from this sum the necessary <sup>of the Bazaar</sup> expenses, which tho' calculated with the strictest economy are necessarily large, the receipts & duties on our foreign Contributions are mounting to $225 every dollar is given to the Rep support of the Standard. This paper containing opinions, arguments, appeals warning & denunciations on the subject of American Slavery exposed alike with discretion & earnestness on conducted as extensively through the Southern States as the mails & on means will permit is sent extensively to Southern members of Congress & ~~in every~~<sup>in</sup> the its publication did a large number ~~call~~ of influential & thoughtful people who tho' not Abolitionists are well disposed toward the cause & from whom if from any where on works must be received.

To cut off the supplies of the Standard is to weaken the most conservative institution there The N. A. Society has at its disposal I use this word conservative in its popular sense as opposed to radical through going etc. It is a paper which can wound the feelings of no one who loves the Slave whatever be his sectarian preference. It rejoices in any testimony in favor of human persons whether coming ~~in the shape~~ in a paper Box or an Epistle from the year of Meeting, & the its friends & supporters are cheerfull & thankfull work with an open & candid mind of men, yes & with men of all creeds & of no creed in every part forward the work.

Things being thus, I cannot see how the Edinburgh friends can exaggerate feel easy in their conscience to withdraw their aid from us & the Bryan. Not a dollar of their money goes to the support of heresy and then what does all this consist by such among the Abolitionists as belong to the (so called) Bible Sects as an additional proof that all evangelical people prefer saints to Humanity. There is a reproach brought upon those ordinances which I as well as you believe to be the Truth.

And now with regard to the N. E.
Convention & the Resolution referred to. Of course in a Meeting where entire freedom of discussion prevails the body as such is responsible only for the Resolution adopted. The Friends in Edin might appear to be aware of this for they refer to a specie resolution (the 9th) as affording subject for complaint.
Now as the resolution introduced preceding (the 18th) declares that the Abortionists claim the Bible as their all & have always appealed to it as such, it seems to me an extremely unwarrantable proceeding to infer on the strength of the 19th that they desire casting contempt or reproach on the scriptures. I have <sup>re-read</sup> the resolution as attentively as I am capable of doing & I can find no such construction upon it. I do see that it is capable of leading to an unprofitable theological debate & therefore there may very naturally arise some debate concerning as to the propriety of bringing it forward.

Now on the Business Committee of the Conventer, there is present me from being present at any of its sessions, but I must confess that when I read the Resolution in print, the one we that I hesitated about was the 16. The very suggestion that the Bible could sanction slavery galls so harshly on my ear, that I always shrank from it, but when I remembered that the great church of America with a few insignificant exceptions agreed with it upon the doctrine, I saw the reason why Garrison drew up the Resolution as he did. I can not call it a blasphemy or one. We can utter no more deadening blasphemy of God or than to say that He sanc[t]uris American Slavey. Can you point to any Abolitionist there has done ~~thus~~<sup>more</sup> than ~~this~~<sup>the</sup> fearful guile be at the door of the American Church.

I do not wish to say any thing unkind. Pardon me if what I am about to add does that appearance. I believe it is the private opinion held by some Abolitionists that influence whether we are wrong or not I cannot say) the action of the Edinburgh Society.
I think this state of feeling probably produced by a Circular put forth by a Mr Bailey & Son of the Davies of Glasgow in which various opinions of Mr Bright are set forth for which the Abolitionists are no more responsible than for the repeala-y the statements by the Friends.
I think this Circular put forth before the N. E. Convention was held was or caused <sup>the present</sup> the state of feeling in Edinburgh.

Ms. A.6.2.25.23

But at the present time I have no ~~time~~ <sup>at present</sup> ~~time~~ <sup>to write</sup> to pursue this subject further. The Wm. Lloyd Garrison has been abandoned by Congress, without Commission both of Money & hand made for the support of Slavery in Texas.
The fugitive Slave Bill by which any person sheltering a runaway makes himself liable to fine & imprisonment has become a law of the land.
Mr. Eliot the Senator from Boston voting for the same. Is it under these circumstances that the friends of the cause in England with due <sup>the act</sup> ~~their~~ assistance from people ~~as other~~ <sup>whose</sup> ~~but~~ <sup>rechts</sup> are <sup>are</sup> ~~are~~ <sup>very</sup> offering ~~the master at home~~ <sup>in the work</sup> ~~at~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> I trust that they may be directed to a better consideration for the Slave state, for their own sake, & for the sake of the religion that they profess. Withdrawn from the help of the American Slave at the present crisis is a melancholy way of spending their love & elevation for God.)

I am thank ful, my dear friend that a committee, including your mother & yourself are of a different mind. Whatever contributions ~~this year~~<sup>the previous</sup> from Edinburgh will be they never go trifling will be received with deeper interest & thankfulness than ever before. There can be no comparison between us, there could have been none had your decision been otherwise & not think there we <sup>can</sup> / enter well (I believe I may speak for the Friends generally) any other sentiments than those of gratitude & kindness to our Edinburgh Friends who have helped us so materially before.

I have written this very hurriedly; it is on your perusing a private letter & not addressed to you Committee, for I have no authority to speak for them, nor yet the time that the importance of the subject demands will it be ~~possible~~ to <sup>possibly</sup> see it through. I have not had your letter of one week ago writing. Accidentally meeting Mr Granier in Boston yesterday I gave him to understand, & he begged to keep it a few days, as he wished to write, I think to your Mother.

Of course you are at liberty to show this to any ~~dead~~ members of your Society if you please if you think fit. I have very expected my individual news, & yet I do not think they will differ greatly from the other members of the Boston Committee.

One word more & I have done.
I agree entirely with you in the opinion that it is right & proper for every other body for the sake of peace & harmony. I have done so. My religious opinions differ very materially from those of Mr Granier & many other friends with whom I can yet labour in this cause most cordially. I agree with most of the great doctrinarians that are from the various of the so called evangelical churches, though being at this time, in consequence of their shyness & shyness position in communion with none of them I do not chose to call myself a member of any particular denomination. & church government next my sentiments agree with those of the congregation etc, for I was educated among them, & late years have esteemed the pulpit as particularly propitious. As <sup>then</sup> church services, & manners, going to ~~are~~ ~~the~~ <sup>my</sup> ~~sentiments~~ <sup>have</sup> been but ~~supposed~~ <sup>now</sup> ~~as~~ <sup>a s. Am. with</sup> little altered. I always knew these Matters were merely the external of religion, means of giving ~~the~~ <sup>you</sup> ~~the~~ religious etc, but I have no known of for & have entire toleration for all modes of worship, knowing has much education & temperament have to do with these things. I have been thus extremitie that you may be aware that I have written <sup>unintentioned</sup> by any opposition with "these opinions" so called Otherwise I share no have accide to the subjects.

With very affectionate regards to the very dear & most worthy
